20th September 1958] [Sri R. Venkataraman]

179, is for the entire State and will probably work up to one peon per office roughly. However, it is proposed to issue instructions to the District Officers of other Departments to absorb the peons with more than one year's service retrenched in the Commercial Tax Department of each district after discharging the temporary hands in their departments who have put in less than one year's service and in the new vacancies that may arise. Thus it will be seen that the Government are already taking steps to provide alternative employment to the peons to be retrenched from the Commercial Tax Department.
